

Summary Report: Children and Young People's 'Equalities Summit'

Friday 17th April | 9:30 am
Commons Building, Bath Spa University

Tops

- My brother was looked after well at hospital
- They help you get better
- People sticking up for people with health problems
- People being kind
- My GP looks after me well
- My GP is very understanding and explains all my options clearly to me
- The doctor's help you get better

Pants

- Need to be a bit more friendly
- Child friendly wards throughout the hospital
- Waiting times are too long sometimes
- Hospitals aren't a friendly enough environment – everything is white
- GPs in Bath NEED training in LGBT
- Racism
- Spiders in hospitals
- People making fun of people with health problems
- The old people's home was way too expensive; my grandma used all her savings in a year